- Player has simple navigation to go forward, back, stop, pause and automatic bookmark.
- Tactile buttons
- No postage charges. Memory sticks are sent and returned in a reusable pouch using a Royal Mail freepost service.
- Hear us online via our accessible websites and via Amazon Alexa.
- Listen at any time that suits you.
- If you have a problem with your Talking Newspaper, you can speak to a "real" person!

About Mole Valley Talking Newspapers

Dorking & District and Bookham & District Talking Newspapers are Registered Charities run by volunteers. Each edition is produced by a team of friendly voices and production helpers.

Each week we read and record articles from Dorking & Leatherhead Advertiser and Surrey Advertiser. We include articles from other local publications such as parish magazines, local reference information and articles on help with sight loss.

In addition you will also receive our monthly "Dorking Talking" magazine full of information, interest and fun!

You, or someone you know, may be eligible to receive Mole Valley's Talking Newspapers.

You may have a problem with your sight or maybe you find it hard to hold a newspaper to read it...

Phone or contact your nearest

Talking Newspaper online or by filling in the form overleaf to see if you can be sent a Talking Newspaper.

The service is free to Visually Impaired Persons.
